ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors.
2. Number, Tenure, and Qualifications. The minimum number of directors of the corporation shall be three (3). The board of directors shall be composed of the AJCA Officers, the Area Adult Advisors, the Adult Officers and the State Director. The directors shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.
3. Vacancies. If a vacancy occurs in the board of directors by reason of death or resignation, or if the members fail to fill all the vacancies in the board of directors at the annual meeting or any meeting for the purpose of electing directors, the vacancies shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining members of the board of directors. Any vacancy caused by removal of a director shall be filled by the members and may be filled at the annual meeting at which the vacancy is created or at a subsequent meeting.
4. Informal Action. Action taken by a majority of the directors without a meeting in respect to any corporate matter shall be valid if, before or after such action, all board members sign and file with the Secretary for inclusion in the Corporate minute book a memorandum showing (a) the nature of the action taken, (b) the consent of each board member and (c) the names of directors approving and directors opposing such action.
5. Proxies. Directors may not vote by proxy.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

1. Number. The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice-president/president-elect, association secretary, youth treasurer, nine area vice presidents, nine area adult advisors, an adult treasurer/corporate secretary, and an adult parliamentarian.
2. Vacancies. When a vacancy occurs in one of the executive offices by death, resignation or otherwise, it shall be filled by the board of directors. The officer so selected shall hold offices until his successor is chosen and qualified.
3. Election requirements. All officers shall be elected from the active membership during the annual meeting by secret ballot by a majority vote of the members present and voting at the annual meeting. Members must be present to vote. All elected officers shall be members in good standing and shall be residents of the State of Arkansas.
4. Terms of office. The president, president-elect, secretary and youth treasurer will hold office for a term of one year. At such time the vice president moves in to the presidency position.
5. President. The office of president carries many responsibilities. The president is elected by the members to lead the Association. He/she will preside over all meetings of the general membership and the Board of Directors.
6. Vice-President/President-Elect. The president-elect shall serve as vice president for one term, and upon the completion of that term, move into the presidency position. In the absence of the president, the vice-president will conduct the business of the corporation. The president-elect must be at least a sophomore level in high school at the time of the election. He or she must be prepared to speak before groups to represent the AJCA.
7. Association Secretary. The association secretary will keep accurate notes/minutes of all meetings of the AJCA. Minutes should be disbursed in a timely manner to all members of the Board of Directors following each meeting.
8. Youth Treasurer. The youth treasurer will work with the adult treasurer in maintaining an accurate membership roster (names, addresses, e-mail addresses, and telephone numbers) and keeping accurate records of the corporation's financial affairs. The youth and adult treasurers will work together to submit a budget of proposed spending for the upcoming year and a report of actual expenditures to the Board of Directors at the annual meeting.
9. Area Vice Presidents. The nine area vice presidents shall serve as representatives of the members of their respective areas. They shall advise the Board of Directors as to the feelings and wishes of the members from their area of the state on proposals and stimulate interest in the AJCA in each of their areas, as well as recruiting AJCA members from their respective areas. There shall be no term limits to the office of Area Vice President. The area vice presidents shall be elected by secret ballot at the annual meeting by members of his or her area during the area caucus session. In the event that an area is unrepresented at the annual meeting, a member from that area will have two weeks to notify the President of his or her interest in being appointed to represent his or her area. Following this two week period should an area still be unrepresented, interested members from other areas may make a written letter of application to the President to inform the President of his or her interest in representing that area. The President and the chairman of the Adult Advisory Board will appoint/select members to serve the unrepresented areas. Any vacancy occurring shall be filled by appointment of the President and the chairman of the Adult Advisory Board to complete the unexpired term. If an area vice president misses two consecutive meetings, he or she will be subject to dismissal from the officer team. The nine area vice presidents will be elected for a term of two years. The nine area vice presidents will be elected on a staggered system to provide consistency to the association leadership. Odd numbered areas will elect area vice presidents on odd numbered years. Even numbered areas will elect area vice presidents on even numbered years. Counties shall be assigned to areas as follows:
